MURDER IN THE TWENTIETH WARD - A WOMAN THE VICTIM-HER BROTHER AND HIS FRIEND ARRESTED FOR THE DEED, -Informa-FRIEND ARRESTED FOR THE DEED,—Information was received at the 20th ward station house, about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, that a woman had been murdered at 171 West 29th street. Officer INVIGO was immediately dispatched to the spot. In the basement of the house indicated, occupied as a shoe shop, the officer found a woman stretched out upon the floor, her head resting on a pile of rubbish, and quite dead. In the room were two drunken Irishmen, occupants of the place, who manifested the utmost unconcern, one of them remarking to the officer that "if is no use to examine her, she's dead chem.h." The men, named Peres Bradders and Santan 100%, were immediately tiken into custody and locked up in the 20th Ward station-house. An examination of the body of the murdered woman re-

ing in the basement mentioned, with her brother. The place, which is a low, miserable, woo den-house assement, is rented by Persa Baaner, and occupied as a cobbie, a shop. Love had a bench there to do job work for himself, paying Baaner, a small sum per week for that powilege. He and his sister lived in a small, dirty, dark room in the rear; but Baaner, boarded elsewhere. On Friday and Friday night the two men and the deceased were on a spree, d-inking and quarreling all night to the great annoyance of the neighborhood. This was kept up as late as 3 o'clock on Saturday morning, when they appear to have gone to bed. About nine o'clock one of the women I wing in the immediate neighborhood, remarked to a young man named Joint Clark, an employee in the Sin office, that she was afraid Miss Love was dead as she had not seen her that morning. Young Clark immediately went into the shoe shop, where he saw the two men asieep and the women lying dead. He went directly to the station-house and secured the services of officer Invisa, who returned with him as stated. The shop was in the greatest disorder, the benches and tools upset and scattered about, showing concludely that there had been a scuille during the night. A large crowd soon collected about the place, attracted by a morb d curcosity, to see the body of the weman, and when it became known that her own brother was suspected of having murdered her, the excitement became intense. The place was given in charge of two polocomen, and a messenger was dispatched to notify the Coroner. When arrested, the two prisoners were too much intoxicated to give any satisfactory account of themselves. Both however, admitted that they had been fighting, and each accused the other of beating the deceased. Brantay attent that the deceased was very drunk, and having exhausted her strength in quarreling, went to sleep on the floor. Her brother, who was also very drunk, attempted to arouse her and put her to bed. She was obstimate, and refused to go; whereupon her brother commenced beatin

the following verdict: "that deceased came to her death by intemperance, and was killed by violence. They then made another effort with the following result: "MARY ANN LOVE came to her death by intemperance, hastened by violence at the hands of PETER BRADER." LEGAL REPORTS-SATURDAY.

Supreme Court. Alleged fraudulent assessment-Sarah M. Sanford vs. The Mayor, dr .- This was an action to recove back an assessment of $2,641 52, alleged to have been paid in ignorance of fraud in the proceedings under paid in ignorance of fraud in the proceedings under which it was made. The plaintiff is the owner of several lots in 77th street, upon which the assessment was reade for the regulation of that street.

The assessment was presented for payment in 1878, and paid by the husband of the plaintiff, her agent, he supposing that it was correct and could be collected. Subsequently, it is alleged, fraud was discovered in the proceedings pursuant to which he assessment was made. The fraud consisted, as averred, in an alteration of the agreement, after the bid was accepted so as to make the amount to be paid for the work $45.149 13, instead of $25.400, the eriginal amount of the bid. It was alleged that the contract was not given to the lowest bidder. Plaintiff averred that these frands were palpable, and may be discovered upon examination of the assessment roil, aithough it is averred that some of the records have been abstracted from the Street Department, to conceal the fraud. The complaint did not state that at the time the assessment was paid, any fraudulent representations were made by the officer presenting it for payment.

The city now put in a demurrer, the complaint ur-for payment.

The city now put in a demurrer, the complaint urging that as it did not charge that the payment was obtained by fraud, and specifically admitted that examination of the records at the time of payment, would have revealed the final, it did not state facts enough to constitute a cause or action.

The Court so held, and gavejudgment for the definitions, with leave to the plaintiff, if she desired, to amend, upon payment of costs. It is not believed, however, after the intimations of the Court upon the merits of the case, the action will be renewed.

Alleged Fraud in the formation of a Company. The Perses & Brooks Paper Works vs. James C. Willett. This case now came on for trial before Jus-Willett. This case now came on for trial before Justice Robertson, at the trial term of this Court.

The plaintiffs in the action are a Connecticut corporation, and they sue the defendant for wrongfully taking about $12,000 worth of paper belonging to them, upon several exemtions issued against the property of Persse & Brooks.

The defendant claims that the corporation was formed merely for the purpose of covering up the property of Persse & Brooks, and not in good faith. We are also informed by counsel that a case involving the same question has been recently tried before Ex-Judge Mitchell, as referree, and resulted in a judgment sustaining the action of Persse & Brooks.
